YOUR RIGHTS

Before we ask you any questions, you must understand your rights.

Initials

You have the right to remain silent.

Anything you say can be used against you in court.

You have the right to talk to a lawyer for advice before we ask you any questions and to have him with you during questioning if you wish.

If you cannot afford a lawyer, one will be appointed for you before questioning if you wish.

If you decide to answer questions now without a lawyer present, you will still have the right to stop answering at any time. You also have the right to stop answering at any time until you talk to a lawyer.

If you are a juvenile, you have the right to talk with your parent or guardian before any questioning and to have them with you during such questioning.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS

(Both waivers must be signed if juvenile.)

I have read this statement of my rights and I understand what my rights are. I am willing to make a statement and answer questions. I do not want a lawyer at this time. I understand and know what I am doing. No promises or threats have been made to me and no pressure or coercion of any kind has been used against me.

Signed _____

As parent or legal guardian of _____, I have read the juvenile's rights as set out above and understand them. Neither the juvenile nor I want a lawyer at this time and the juvenile is willing to answer questions.
